(Call to order of the Court.)

THE CLERK: Calling the matter of PG&E Corporation.

THE COURT: Good morning, everyone. This is Judge Montali on the call. I don't -- I don't any appearances for the moment. I will just make a couple of preliminary announcements. And then I'll ask for debtors' counsel to identify themselves.

I would ask for those of you participating by phone, if you are able to mute your phone until it's time for you to speak, that would help us avoid talking, dog barking, or other background noises to cut down on the confusion.

And this is the first hearing, I believe, since we've gone to the specific claim objections. And I'm going to run through the -- in a moment the claims that I'll be addressing today.

Let me say also that a number of you have logged in on AT&T and put your name on the screen which is fine. Some of you, however, have been identified by -- so for me and for my staff only as guests by number. That's -- you're entitled to be a guest by number, but when you speak, I'll need you to identify yourself by name so we can keep track of who's appearing on the record.

So in a -- I'll take a few -- I have a few questions

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company
1 for PG&E's counsel. And then after that, I intend to follow
2 the proposed agenda that PG&E's counsel filed yesterday. And I
3 will take the individual claimants in the order on that agenda.
4 And so if you are high on the list, I'll be hearing from you
5 soon. If you're low on the list, unfortunately it's going to 6 take a little bit.

7 So the order that I'm going to take them will be EBEN
8 818 then Todd Greenberg then D.A. Wood Construction.

9 Then after that, Mr. Mark Klein then Mr. Larry Engel
10 then Ms. Dorcas Wheeler then Mr. Bruce -- excuse me, Bruce or 11 Kathleen Shaw, then Tracy Nick or Haisam Nijem then John Weaver
12 then Martha Gerstner Then Rhonda Miller then Annette Hicks.

13 And if I've gone through that entire list, I believe 14 those are the only people that I expect to hear from today. If 15 there are others that expect to be heard, I'll ask you simply 16 to wait. And I'll call for your appearances as we get through 17 the agenda.

18 Now, may I have the appearances by the PG&E lawyers
19 who are taking the lead on the discussion today?

20 MS. SILVEIRA: Good morning, Your Honor. This is Dara
21 Silveira from Keller Benvenutti Kim on behalf of the debtors
22 and reorganized debtors. And my colleague, Peter Benvenutti,
23 is on the line as well.

24 THE COURT: Good morning, MS. Silveira. I saw your
25 name, and I thought you were going to be the attorney

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 appearing. But I also saw Mr. Benvenutti's name. I'll assume 2 you're going to answer my questions unless we hear from him.

3 So I want to make sure I'm clear what you expect when 4 we are dealing with a claimant that have been identified as 5 being dealt with by a status conference today. And more
6 specifically though, I want to ask a couple of fundamental 7 questions.

8 In some of the -- obviously, a number of the matters
9 that were on for today's calendar have been continued to a
10 later date. And we don't need any discussion about that.

11 But as far as claimants where PG&E has withdrawn the 12 objection or there's been a resolution by agreement, is it fair
13 to assume that those claims will be paid in due course and 14 soon?

15 MS. SILVEIRA: Yes. Where there has been a resolution
16 reached or we've withdrawn and allowed the claim, those are 17 being paid. I believe our timeline is checks go out every two 18 to three weeks.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Okay. Again, there's no immediate 20 feedback from my point of view. And I don't know what the 21 distribution timing is. But at least claimants who are in the 22 call today, they may be more inclined to agree to things if 23 they know they're going to get paid quickly. That's for a
24 specific discussion on any particular claim.

25 Then next, what is your expectation for some of these

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 claims where there are disputes of legal theories but not
2 necessarily amounts but you want to have it as a status
3 conference today? What is your expectation of what I should be 4 doing today?

5 MS. SILVEIRA: Your Honor, where we've indicated
6 something will go forward as a status conference, these are 7 ones where there are factual disputes that will need to be
8 resolved through an evidentiary hearing.

9 THE COURT: Well, how would --

10 Well, whoever is speaking, I'd like you to -- please
11 mute your line, ma'am, whoever is speaking. Can you folks --
12 can you folks mute your lines?

13 Well, that's a failed effort. Someone is having a
14 conversation with someone else on this call. And we're just 15 going to have to stop the hearing until you mute your line and 16 not let the rest of us hear your conversation.

17 So, Ms. Silveira, what I'm getting at is in a
18 traditional manner, if we have a dispute, a status conference,
19 and we can set a deadline for discovery and a deadline for 20 exchange of documents and all the normal things, every claimant
21 in this dispute with PG&E is entitled to that. But it may well
22 be that, if the parties will agree on facts or certain things
23 aren't disputed or, alternatively, if the matter can be 24 disposed of by a point of law, then that changes the schedules.

25 What I don't want to do is have a dozen claimants

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 lined up for the next hearing when it's time to get down to the 2 merits. And so I don't need you to answer my question now, but
3 I just want you to be aware that I want to explore the 4 possibility. For example, if one side says, well, my claim is 5 X dollars and the debtors' side is no, we don't owe you any 6 money at all, then perhaps there's no reason to have any 7 evidentiary hearing if the assertion is the right amount and 8 your question -- your response, rather, is a legal argument.
9 Again, I'll be more specific when we come to the individual
10 claims.

11 But another preliminary question for you, some of 12 these may be appropriate to send to mediation. And is there
13 any reason why the mediation program that's in place for the 14 general claims, not the -- not the securities claims and not 15 the fire claims, but the other group, why some of these
16 disputes couldn't be referred to mediation if that's acceptable
17 to the claimant.

18 MS. SILVEIRA: Certainly, Your Honor.

19 With respect to most of these, we're very flexible
20 about using the ADR procedures. We believe that they can be 21 resolved with a fairly straightforward evidentiary presentation
22 in front of Your Honor which is why we haven't referred them
23 immediately. But it's certainly something we're willing to 24 discuss as to most of these claimants.

25 THE COURT: One of the things that was a little

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 confusing to me when I prepared for this hearing and I reviewed
2 all the twelve claims that are sort of on the table today was
3 your omnibus objection, at least the fortieth omnibus
4 objection, which summarized the debtors' position on the 5 so-called Rule 14 and 16 and 2, Rule 2 issues. Those seem to 6 be questions of law. And yet your response for some of them
7 leave open the question of fact.

8 So I guess what I'm putting to you is, even if we have 9 a status conference for a particular plan and we set it for 10 another hearing, is it something that you believe could be 11 dealt with by the equivalent of a summary judgment motion?
12 Because maybe there aren't facts that are material to the 13 dispute. Is that -- is that a possibility?

14 MS. SILVEIRA: In some cases, yes, Your Honor.
15 Specifically with respect to the forty-second omnibus objection
16 that deals with the Rule 14 claims, we have a proposal for Your
17 Honor that was agreed to by claimants in terms of how to move
18 forward.

19 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, if you want, I
20 could take those two out of order now if you could get some -- 21 in and out of the hearing. And I was going to take them in 22 order as I indicated. But that -- if I'm not mistaken, that is 23 Mr. Klein and Mr. Engel. They are the two under the 24 forty-second omnibus objection; is that right? Right?

25 MS. SILVEIRA: Yes, Your Honor.

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 THE COURT: All right. Let's -- go ahead. I'm sorry,
2 Ms. Silveira.

3 MS. SILVEIRA: So these are -- Mr. Klein and Ms.
4 Klein's claim and Mr. Engel's claim relate to the reorganized
5 debtors' public safety power shutoff or PSPS program.

6 THE COURT: Right.

7 MS. SILVEIRA: We initially reported to the Court
8 these could be resolved as a matter of law. Upon further 9 reflection, as we reported yesterday, we believe we need to 10 proceed with the status conference today.

11 Yesterday we reached agreement with both Mr. Klein and 12 Mr. Engel, both of whom I believe are on the line, regarding a
13 schedule for these claims moving forward. If the date works
14 for the Court, we'll have a further status and scheduling
15 conference on June 15th. And on or before April 23rd, which is 16 thirty days from today, PG&E will file a further objection to 17 each claim which will include additional grounds for objection.
18 And the claimants will have --

19 THE COURT: But, Ms. Silveira, it'll be additional 20 grounds for objections, but it'll still be within the context
21 of the PSP, yes, that they both base their claims on. Is that 22 right?

23 MS. SILVEIRA: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Yes, go ahead.

25 MS. SILVEIRA: And then the claimant would have until

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 May 14th to reply to the -- to the larger objection, should he 2 choose.

3 And then between the May 14th filing of the reply and
4 the June 15th status conference, the parties would meet and
5 confer about an agreed-upon schedule for further proceedings
6 and, if applicable, seek to narrow the issues that are 7 presented to the Court.

8 THE COURT: All right. In view of that, Ms. Silveira,
9 I will change the sequence. And I'll ask Mr. Klein and Mr.
10 Engel just to state their appearance for the record. And then 11 I have a couple questions for them. And then I'll hear from 12 them.

13 So, Mr. Klein, why don't you make your appearance, 14 first?

15 MR. KLEIN: Thank you, Your Honor. Mark Klein for 16 Mark Klein and Janet Klein.

17 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Engel?

18 MR. ENGEL: Yes. Larry Engel for Larry Engel.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So those dates, Ms. Silveira, I
20 didn't clear -- or I don't know if you cleared the June 15th
21 date with my courtroom deputy. But that's fine if it's clear
22 on our schedule.

23 And so, Mr. Klein and Mr. Engel, is that acceptable to 24 you? We just put these over to the June 15th hearing and then 25 we'll follow the schedule Ms. Silveira just described?

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 MR. ENGEL: That's acceptable to Larry Engel, Your
2 Honor.

3 THE COURT: And Mr. Klein? Mr. Klein?

4 MR. KLEIN: I'm sorry, Your Honor. I'm sorry. I'm 5 on.

6 THE COURT: You're muted. Mr. Klein, can you hear me?
7 Mr. Engel, can you still hear me?

8 MR. ENGEL: I can hear you, Your Honor, yes.

9 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Klein, did we lose you?
10 All right.

11 Ms. Parada, let's go back to you. We have -- the June
12 15th is a PG&E date, right? Correct?

13 THE CLERK: Yes, Your Honor, at 10 a.m.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Klein, are you there now?

15 MR. KLEIN: I'm trying to be, Your Honor. Can you
16 hear me?

17 THE COURT: Yes. Yes, I can hear you. Can you hear
18 me?

19 MR. KLEIN: Yes, sir. I'm sorry. I'm not used to 20 using mute.

21 THE COURT: Well, so I don't --

22 MR. KLEIN: It's all acceptable -- it's all acceptable
23 to me.

24 THE COURT: I don't want you using mute now.

25 All right. Mr. Klein, if I -- if I understand your

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 position and your response, you have a claim of approximately 2 18,000 dollars for the acquisition of a standby generator. And
3 that -- am I correct that is the -- that's the theory or the 4 universe of your claim? And obviously, it is based upon the 5 PSPS. Have I got it right or is there --

6 MR. KLEIN: No, Your Honor. You have it right.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I have to give you one
8 compliment, Mr. Klein, because I thought the use of the term
9 "UNLAW" for utilities negligence liability avoidance way was 10 very clever.

11 Mr. Engel, I've known you for a long time. I've never 12 known you to be quite so verbose. But you've overdone me.
13 You've completely buried me with verbiage. And you're going to 14 have to get a little more -- how can I say -- you're going to 15 have to narrow the issue. I mean, the --

16 MR. ENGEL: Your Honor, I -- if I may. I understand.
17 A part of the problem here is that I wasn't sure exactly how 18 things were going to play out in the -- in the class action and 19 PG&E, what PG&E was going to argue, and what they weren't going 20 to argue. So I was trying to cover myself and to be able to go
21 in different directions.

22 However, to get to the core of it, which I understand
23 you want to do, the key areas for me are following up on a
24 case. I found a winning case, by the way, that isn't in my 25 brief. With --

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 THE COURT: No, that's I really want to hear.

2 MR. ENGEL: Yeah. It's Elder v. Pacific Telephone
3 Company.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Engel, I don't want to get into the 5 merits. I just want to know am I right you have a claim for 6 approximately 25,000 dollars. Is it -- is there to the claim 7 than that?

8 MR. ENGEL: Yeah. The core of it is the generator,
9 and that's 25,000 dollars as I've documented. On some theories
10 I have some additional amounts, but the core of it is the 25-.

11 THE COURT: Okay. But again, I -- the reason why I
12 made my opening comments is that I'm going to deal with today,
13 I believe, on the merits. And I simply can't give you the 14 benefit of the time it takes to have you summarize calling
15 up --

16 MR. ENGEL: No, I don't think you need to. That's why
17 we agreed with the debtor to sharpen and narrow the issues. I
18 think by the time of the next status conference when PG&E
19 stated what their position is, I'll be able to narrow my 20 position in response to their position.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Well, do me that favor and do so
22 because I practically burned up my laptop trying to read
23 everything that you filed.

24 Ms. Silveira --

25 MR. ENGEL: Yes.

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 THE COURT: -- I will -- I will move Mr. Klein and Mr.
2 Engel's claims to the June 15th status conference. I will ask
3 that you circulate an agreed order or stipulation or something
4 memorializing in written form what you've agreed with each of 5 these two gentlemen for the deadline for each side to do what 6 you did. You summarized it, but I didn't keep track of 7 everything. And unless Mr. Klein or Mr. Engel want to add any
8 further, I will just take those two claimants off the calendar
9 for now. Okay. Thank you both.

10 MR. KLEIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 MR. ENGEL: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. All right. Ms. Silveira, then
13 going back to the opening comments, I'll go back to the 14 sequence that I called unless you think it would be more
15 efficient to do anything else out of order. If you've made any 16 other arrangements with any of the claimants, speak up.
17 Otherwise, I'll take them in order.

18 MS. SILVEIRA: Yes, Your Honor. There are two other 19 claims where the status has changed since we last reported to 20 the Court.

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 MS. SILVEIRA: The first of those is the forty-fourth
23 omnibus objection with respect to the claim of Tracy Nick and 24 Haisam Nijem.

25 THE COURT: All right. What's the arrangement there?

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 MS. SILVEIRA: So there's not actually an arrangement,
2 Your Honor. We thought we had a settlement, but it seems like
3 there was a miscommunication. In reviewing the objection to 4 move forward today, we notice that it doesn't square up with
5 the nature of the dispute as we now understand it. We objected
6 as a no liability claim which is one for which there's no
7 supporting documentation provided. That's not the case here.
8 So our plan is to withdraw the forty-fourth omnibus objection
9 with respect to this claim. If we can't reach a resolution in 10 the meantime, we'll reobject on an alternative ground.

11 THE COURT: Okay. One second and I'll hear from the 12 claimant. I just need to get some papers out of the way.

13 So all right. Is Ms. Nick or Mr. Nijem -- are you on 14 the phone? No appearance?

15 So once again, so have you heard from them in 16 connection with today's hearing, or did you just agree that you
17 would be taking it off?

18 MS. SILVEIRA: I have not heard from them in 19 connection with today's hearing.

20 THE COURT: Okay. So once again, is there anyone --

21 MR. NIJEM: We're -- we're here --

22 THE COURT: -- on the call --

23 MR. NIJEM: -- Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Who is that speaking, please?

25 MR. NIJEM: I'm sorry. This is Haisam Nijem and Tracy

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 Nicks.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. NIJEM: We are --

4 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Nijem, yes, sir. So you
5 understood that -- did you hear what Ms. Silveira said?

6 MR. NIJEM: I -- we heard her. I'm not a hundred
7 percent sure we understood.

8 THE COURT: Well, the company has filed -- excuse me.
9 The company has filed what they call their forty-fourth omnibus
10 objection. And you filed a written brief -- a written response
11 and indicate two things, as I understand it. You claim a 12 thousand dollars because of a line repair, and you claimed some 13 other amount for -- I believe it's 18,000 dollars -- no, I'm 14 sorry. I'm sorry. One second. Let me look at my notes here.
15 Yes, 23,000 dollars for damage to some of your property.

16 And Ms. Silveira indicated that they were going to 17 withdraw that objection if they haven't been able to reach a
18 settlement with you, and they will refile a new objection. So
19 there's no action necessary from you or from me today. And do
20 you understand that that -- do you understand that?

21 MR. NIJEM: Yes.

22 THE COURT: And am I right? Is your claim as I
23 indicated a thousand dollars -- and again, roughly a thousand
24 dollars for a broken sewage lateral and approximately 20- or -- 25 what did I say -- I can't see with all these amounts. But

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company
1 23,500 dollars for damage to stairs and other part of your
2 property? Is that correct?

3 MR. NIJEM: Yes. However, the -- and I don't know for 4 sure if it's important. The thousand dollars was actually a
5 reimbursement. But the numbers are correct.

6 THE COURT: It doesn't matter what it -- to me.

7 MR. NIJEM: Okay.

8 THE COURT: What matters to me for now is that I'm not
9 going to do anything. Ms. Silveira indicated that maybe this 10 case would be settled. I don't want to know the details of 11 that. If you and your wife settle with the company, the 12 company within a short period of time will be able to make a
13 payment to you. And I encourage you to consider settlement.

14 But if there is no settlement, then PG&E will be 15 filing a new objection to your claim. And that will come on 16 the calendar sometime in the future. So for today's purposes,
17 I'm going to take yours off of our calendar. I just wanted to 18 make sure you understand that. There's nothing more for you to 19 do this morning.

20 MR. NIJEM: Okay. We understand.

21 THE COURT: All right. And you -- okay. And you can
22 stay on the call if you want to, but you certainly don't need
23 to. All right.

24 MR. NIJEM: Okay. Thank you.

25 THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 All right. And, Ms. Silveira, you said there was one
2 other one that maybe isn't -- there's been a change?

3 MS. SILVEIRA: Yes, Your Honor. It's the forty-fifth
4 omnibus objection with respect to the claim of John Weaver.

5 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Weaver, are you on the 6 call?

7 MR. WEAVER: Yes. Can you hear me?

8 THE COURT: Yes, sir. All right. And, Ms. Silveira,
9 what can you tell for Mr. Weaver?

10 MS. SILVEIRA: We just reached a settlement with Mr.
11 Weaver, and it's in the process of being documented. So we'll 12 update the Court once it's fully executed.

13 THE COURT: So, Mr. Weaver, can you just confirm that?
14 And again, I don't need the details. Ms. Silveira said you've 15 reached a settlement. And if that's settled, I'll congratulate 16 you and take this off our calendar for today.

17 MR. WEAVER: Yes. If they follow through with what 18 they say, yes, we have.

19 THE COURT: Well, I think they will. That's their 20 game. And if they don't follow through in what they say, you
21 can take it up with me.

22 MR. WEAVER: Thank you.

23 THE COURT: All right. Good luck. You're welcome to 24 hang up now. Thank you, sir.

25 MR. WEAVER: May I listen in?

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 THE COURT: You certainly can listen in.

2 MR. WEAVER: Thank you.

3 THE COURT: This is an open court.

4 All right. So now I'm going to go back -- Ms.

5 Silveira, that takes care of then four of the twelve that we
6 had on the list for today. So that's --

7 MS. SILVEIRA: Yes.

8 THE COURT: -- one-third of the customers. Let's see
9 if we can keep on a roll here.

10 Is there an appearance by Mr. Sinkiewicz for EBEN 818?

11 MR. SINKIEWICZ: Yes, Your Honor. I am -- I am here.
12 You did a good job pronouncing that name.

13 THE COURT: Well, thank you.

14 So, Mr. Sinkiewicz, by my understanding, you have a
15 claim for -- let me see if I can state it back to you -- you
16 have a claim for 20,000 dollars because you contend that 17 PG&E -- they left you holding the bag while you had lined up
18 some other work, and you got stuck with a claim by the -- by 19 the contractor who was there to do the undergrounding work.
20 And PG&E didn't do the connection. Is that the thrust of your 21 claim?

22 MR. SINKIEWICZ: Yes, sir. That's correct, Your
23 Honor.

24 THE COURT: So, Ms. Silveira, is there any dispute
25 about the fact that the company did schedule the hookup or the

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 connection and --

2 MS. SILVEIRA: Yes, Your Honor. The factual dispute
3 here is that the reorganized debtors can put forward evidence
4 demonstrating the claimant was notified in advance that the 5 work had been rescheduled.

6 THE COURT: I see. And so do you -- you believe
7 that -- well, then if that is a fact that's established, it
8 could be done essentially by a summary judgment, couldn't it?

9 MS. SILVEIRA: Certainly, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Mr. Sinkiewicz, do you understand what the 11 company's theory of the defense is here?

12 MR. SINKIEWICZ: Yeah, I do, Your Honor. However, I
13 don't believe that. I mean, they can say whatever they want.
14 They can say they called and they canceled, they did this and 15 they did that. The fact is I had a dozen -- more than a dozen
16 standing around with machines running.

17 THE COURT: No, I understand. I understand that, sir.
18 And no, I'm --

19 MR. SINKIEWICZ: Okay.

20 THE COURT: I'm not --

21 MR. SINKIEWICZ: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: -- going to make a decision today. I --

23 MR. SINKIEWICZ: Okay.

24 THE COURT: Unless you want me to. But the point is,
25 what I'm hearing from PG&E's lawyers is they gave you notice

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 that there would be a reschedule. You dispute that. So that's 2 what we would call a material fact in dispute. And if the
3 company can demonstrate in admissible written evidence that you
4 were given notice, your job will be to show by admissible
5 evidence that it is no so and that you're entitled to it. So I
6 don't know whether you want to explore this and see if you can
7 settle it or you want to oppose it. I don't know if you want
8 to defend it as a -- without hiring a lawyer. But my job today
9 is simply to figure out what we do next to try to have you have 10 your day in court. But PG&E is also entitled to its day in 11 court.

12 So when I ask you -- okay. So she might -- she might 13 file -- or she, meaning the company through its counsel --
14 might file a motion that says here is why, as a matter of law,
15 PG&E is not liable. And you'll have to respond to that. And 16 then I'll either decide it on the papers submitted or have a
17 hearing. And if necessary, we'll have to have a trial and 18 people testify and so on.

19 And I'm trying to give you the benefit of being able 20 to do that efficiently, but, obviously, you have a right to all
21 of the -- and so does the company, all of the defenses, okay?

22 So, Ms. Silveira, can you make me a proposal for 23 timing on this?

24 MS. SILVEIRA: For briefing, Your Honor, we would 25 propose the next thirty days.

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 THE COURT: And we should then perhaps just put it on
2 a -- well, wait a minute. Let me back up. You believe you can
3 make a prima facie case for summary judgment?

4 MS. SILVEIRA: I believe so, Your Honor. We were -- I
5 was going to propose if we were setting an evidentiary hearing
6 that it be set for the end of May. In terms -- if we're going
7 to be doing briefings first, I think thirty days should be 8 sufficient.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Sinkiewicz, what I will do is I will
10 give PG&E a deadline to file what I'm going to call a motion
11 for summary judgment. And then that -- again, under the law,
12 that means that PG&E will show from its point of view there are 13 no facts in dispute and they -- it does not owe you the 20,000
14 dollars. You have a right to show through evidence that there
15 are facts in dispute.

16 And so, in other words, if you have a letter -- or if 17 they produce a letter or a communication that was given to you
18 and says this is why we're rescheduling, this is why we're not 19 liable, you have a right to contest that. But it can't be they 20 just didn't prove it or I had the people there. That's not the 21 point. You'll have to rebut what they're showing.

22 And I can do it -- what I will do is I will give PG&E
23 thirty days to make that showing in writing. And I'll give you
24 a reasonable period of time to respond in writing. And then 25 I'll either decide it on the papers or set a hearing for

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 argument or, if necessary, set an evidentiary hearing. I'll do
2 that. So the sequence will be -- today is March 24th. I'm 3 going to give PG&E until April 24th to file a motion. I'll 4 give you three weeks after that to respond in writing.

5 And I will then -- based upon those papers, I'll
6 decide what to do next. So maybe I'll rule on the papers.
7 Maybe I'll say no, I have to have a trial in which case I will
8 set a hearing date or perhaps even a brief telephone conference
9 with you and PG&E's lawyers to figure out how to do the trial,
10 whether we're still doing it remotely, who will be called, et
11 cetera. Okay? You following me?

12 MR. SINKIEWICZ: All right. So --

13 THE COURT: So far -- okay. So what's important to 14 you -- and again, I'm not going to tell you you have to have a
15 lawyer. You don't have to. Normally the corporations and LLCs
16 are supposed to appear by counsel, but I'll overlook that this
17 time because you made the representation that your LLC is a
18 solely owned entity by your -- by you.

19 And so by April 24th the company will file in the 20 court and serve on you what I'm calling is a motion for summary
21 judgment. And you will have three weeks after that to respond.
22 And then I'll -- the ball will be in my court to tell you what 23 happens next.

24 MR. SINKIEWICZ: Okay.

25 THE COURT: And you're welcome to -- you're also

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 welcome to have discussions one-on-one with Ms. Silveira and
2 the company if there's still a chance to settle this case
3 before then. Okay? So you can stay on the call if you want or 4 not. I'm going to go ahead and conclude the matter for you
5 today then. All right?

6 MR. SINKIEWICZ: Okay. All right, Your Honor. I'll 7 just --

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MR. SINKIEWICZ: I'll get something in the mail to 10 respond to --

11 THE COURT: Okay. Yes, sir. And those dates are 12 critical. Three weeks from April 24th.

13 MR. SINKIEWICZ: I have to answer their letter or 14 their --

15 THE COURT: Well, what's important -- here's what's 16 critical for you to understand because I assume you don't have 17 the legal training. They will have to support their position
18 with a sworn statement under oath by somebody that knows the 19 facts that they're relying on. And you will have to do --

20 MR. SINKIEWICZ: Um-hum.

21 THE COURT: You will have to do the same if you
22 believe the facts are not as they say. Again, I'm not -- it's 23 not a question of people lying. It's not a question of -- and 24 I'm assuming everybody is being truthful about this. But 25 sometimes different people have different points,

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company
1 recollections. And there are material facts in dispute. And 2 that's why we normally can't decide them on the papers if --
3 unless everybody agrees that we can.

4 But what's critical for you -- remember, PG&E has got 5 very capable lawyers. They know the rules and they know the 6 deadlines. So you need to be mindful of that deadline also.
7 Let's just -- let's just make sure something else is not in 8 doubt. I'm going to make it -- give me just one second, and 9 I'll tell you what I'm referring to here.

10 So their papers are going to be due by -- actually,
11 Ms. Silveira offered the -- or I did, the 24th is a Saturday.
12 So I'm going to make that the 23rd. And so I'm going to make 13 your papers and your response due -- one second. I'm just 14 checking here. Yeah. May 14th.

15 MR. SINKIEWICZ: Okay.

16 THE COURT: Okay?

17 MR. SINKIEWICZ: I have to -- I have to respond by the 18 14th of April -- 14th of May?

19 THE COURT: Yes. It has to be in the -- in the court,
20 electronically with the court. And you can file --

21 MR. SINKIEWICZ: 14th --

22 THE COURT: -- you can file electronically on our 23 court system, May 14th response.

24 And there's no reply, Ms. Silveira. It'll be on the 25 papers.

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 MS. SILVEIRA: Okay.

2 MR. SINKIEWICZ: And I send that to you, sir; is that
3 correct?

4 THE COURT: You file it with the court.

5 MR. SINKIEWICZ: Yeah.

6 THE COURT: You filed it with --

7 MR. SINKIEWICZ: Yeah.

8 THE COURT: -- the court. And I receive it
9 electronically. And PG&E's lawyers receive it electronically.
10 And then I have --

11 MR. SINKIEWICZ: All right.

12 THE COURT: And I will review that and then decide
13 what to do next. Okay. Good luck. Thank you very much for 14 your time.

15 MR. SINKIEWICZ: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Thank you.

17 All right. Next is Todd Greenberg.

18 Mr. Greenberg, are you on the call or someone
19 representing you?

20 MR. LAPPING: Good morning, Your Honor. Richard
21 Lapping appearing for Mr. Greenberg.

22 THE COURT: Good morning, Mr. Lapping.

23 So, Mr. Lapping, I'm -- if I understand it, Mr.
24 Greenberg is claiming approximately 37,000 dollars for 25 fluctuations and damage to personal property and to his home

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company
1 because of the power fluctuations. Have I got it right?

2 MR. LAPPING: Generally, yes.

3 THE COURT: And there are two other claims that are
4 not the subject of the dispute today; is that right, Ms.
5 Silveira?

6 MS. SILVEIRA: That's correct, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: So what's your proposal for this? Could 8 you do this by a summary judgment also?

9 MS. SILVEIRA: I believe so, Your Honor. But we would 10 ask for slightly more time on this one.

11 THE COURT: Well, what's the substance of your 12 defense? This is not a Rule 2 defense though, right?

13 MS. SILVEIRA: Correct, Your Honor. We will 14 demonstrate that there were not power surges on the dates in 15 issue.

16 THE COURT: Well --

17 MS. SILVEIRA: But we'll also do contest the measure
18 of damages if we get there.

19 THE COURT: I just want to know what to expect from 20 you.

21 MS. SILVEIRA: Certainly.

22 THE COURT: I'm sorry.

23 MS. SILVEIRA: So, yeah, the evidence will center
24 around the fact that there were not power surges at the 25 premises on the date in question.

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 THE COURT: But what about the day before or the day
2 after? I mean, if he was away, I think the papers say that he
3 was away. If you come back and you find your damage, do you
4 have to know what day it happened?

5 MS. SILVEIRA: Right. I believe -- and we'll
6 certainly confirm this on our papers, but our search covered 7 the entire period he indicated that he was away.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Well, can you -- so, again, Mr.
9 Lapping, I don't know if you were listening on the prior
10 matter. But I believe that in the prior matter, I was offered
11 the ability to dispose of this by summary judgment. Do you
12 have any objection? If Ms. Silveira believes --

13 MR. LAPPING: Well, Your Honor --

14 THE COURT: -- that the company can make a summary
15 judgment, they certainly have a right to do it, don't they?

16 MR. LAPPING: Yes, Your Honor. But, I mean, they have 17 a big burden to overcome because their own email says that they 18 had -- they already made an offer to pay the deductible. And 19 they're going to argue that there were no surges and that res
20 ipsa loquitur. Things don't just blow up electronically
21 because of the absence of any event. There clearly was some 22 sort of event.

23 So we're happy to engage in -- I guess I would like to 24 see some preliminary discovery from PG&E as to how they come to 25 the conclusion that there were no surges. If they want to do

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 that in a motion for summary judgment, that's fine as well. I
2 think if we get -- once I see what it is that they're going to
3 actually argue and the evidence, I may want an opportunity to 4 take somebody's deposition.

5 THE COURT: Well, okay. You're entitled to do that.
6 But again, I -- when I started this discussion and asking Ms.
7 Silveira how we should go about this -- and this was one where
8 she believes she can make a case for summary judgment. You
9 know if the debtor -- if the company makes a motion for summary
10 judgment, you have under the rules -- there are procedures that 11 give the opponent an opportunity to take discovery. On the 12 other hand, there isn't -- who are we going to take the 13 discovery from? I mean, your own client can opine and give us
14 a declaration that he suffered this damage on or about a
15 certain date. And if -- and if he can relate it to power
16 surges, then there may be a material fact in dispute.

17 I'm willing to let you take discovery. I'm trying to 18 see if we can move these things smoothly and quickly for -- to 19 avoid -- if it comes out to this, avoid even wasting time with 20 the summary judgment if we need to set it immediately for 21 trial.

22 So what discovery would you take?

23 MR. LAPPING: Well, Your Honor, I don't know what the 24 condition of the -- what records the PG has -- PG&E has that 25 proves a negative like this. We may not need to take any

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 discovery because have evidence of our own that they were
2 working next door, doing this massive project with these poles
3 and the city managers aware of the surges. And so I don't
4 understand the nature of the factual dispute at this point.
5 And so without really knowing exactly how they're going to
6 present this, I'm at a loss as to say what we're going to do
7 next.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Silveira, make me a proposal
9 for your motion, please.

10 MS. SILVEIRA: I was going to propose May 21st. But 11 in the interim, perhaps we could set another status conference
12 at the omnibus hearing on the 28th. And I'll meet and confer
13 with Mr. Lapping in the interim.

14 THE COURT: So that'll be April 28th?

15 MS. SILVEIRA: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Again, I haven't -- I haven't memorized
17 all of our upcoming dates.

18 But let's do this: I will take your proposal, Mr.
19 Lapping -- and I think this is probably consistent with your 20 wishes. I'll put this over to April 28th at 10 o'clock for 21 further status. But before then, I want the two of you to meet
22 and confer and agree on when there needs to be a deadline
23 either for a motion or for end of discovery. I won't impose it
24 on you today on either side. But certainly on the 28th I want
25 to have a pinned-down schedule for motion or discovery cut-off

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 so we can set an evidentiary hearing.

2 MS. SILVEIRA: Certainly, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay?

4 MR. LAPPING: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you very much. And I'll see
6 you in April 28th at 10 o'clock.

7 MR. LAPPING: And that's at 10 o'clock I assume?

8 THE COURT: Yeah. Stay tuned. We may be doing that 9 by Zoom. We'll figure out what we're doing next time around.

10 MR. LAPPING: I will check the calendar.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MR. LAPPING: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Thanks.

14 Next up is D.A. Wood. We have appearance for someone
15 for D.A. Wood today?

16 MR. COX: Good morning, Your Honor. Blaine Cox on 17 behalf of D.A. Wood.

18 THE COURT: All right. Good morning, Mr. Cox.

19 Now, if I've got it correctly on this one, let me see
20 if I've done my homework, this is approximately a 27,000-dollar
21 claim because PG&E, if I understand it, you contend that they 22 failed to mark out an underground gas line. And somebody, I
23 guess your client, then broke it.

24 MR. COX: That is generally correct, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Silveira, see, I'm doing

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 my homework. I know what the claims are. But what's your
2 proposal on this one, Ms. Silveira?

3 MS. SILVEIRA: We believe this one would be
4 appropriate for summary judgment briefing as well.

5 THE COURT: And what would it be, that you did mark
6 out the lines?

7 MS. SILVEIRA: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Cox, I guess if you heard the 9 conversation on the other matters, it seems like the way to do
10 it if that's what the company can do.

11 MR. COX: Not getting into the merits, Your Honor, but 12 I just dispute their -- there's disputed facts whether it was 13 marked. Obviously it was broken. I don't think we could set a 14 summary judgment motion to have an undisputed fact that it was 15 actually marked. I mean, we've got correspondences that it
16 wasn't, records from supervisors from PG&E that were on-site
17 that said it wasn't marked. So I just don't think it's 18 appropriate for summary judgment.

19 I guess my request would just be that we set it for a
20 further status conference and a meet-and-confer so I can speak
21 with debtors' counsel and maybe we could work this out, would 22 be my preferred method. But --

23 THE COURT: Well, to clarify, if they file a motion
24 for summary judgment from a person that says I was the person
25 in charge of this thing and we marked it out, then how would

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 you show -- you then have to dispute that with competent
2 contrary evidence. In other words --

3 MR. COX: Yes, we --

4 THE COURT: In other words, how would you do it?

5 MR. COX: Yes, Your Honor. We'd have a declaration as 6 well saying that it wasn't marked. And I believe we have 7 multiple declarations to that effect as well for supporting 8 evidence to back that up.

9 THE COURT: Well, again, I'm not going to waste
10 everybody's time with a summary judgment motion that's doomed
11 to fail. But, Ms. Silveira, we'll treat this the way we just 12 did the last case unless you have another alternative way to do
13 it. What do you think? What's your pleasure? Treat the same
14 way --

15 MS. SILVEIRA: So --

16 THE COURT: -- we did Mr. Greenberg?

17 MS. SILVEIRA: Yes. We'll set this for a further
18 status conference on April 28th. And I'll meet and confer with 19 claimant's counsel in the interim.

20 THE COURT: Okay. But the same thing. By then I want
21 deadline, an agreed deadline, for a motion or discovery so we
22 can schedule a trial. And again, Mr. Cox, like everything else
23 in life, this may be fruitful for exploring a settlement. I'll 24 leave that to you all. And I'll just continue this to the 28th
25 at 10 o'clock.

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 MS. SILVEIRA: Thank you. Your Honor.

2 MR. COX: Thank you very much, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you both.

4 All right. Next on my list is Dorcas Wheeler. Ms.

5 Wheeler, are you there today? Yeah, you were on the call

6 before. Are you there?

7 MR. WEAVER: Was that Weaver?

8 THE COURT: Mr. Wheeler, no. Ms. Wheeler. Wheeler.

9 MS. WHEELER: Yes, Your Honor. Good morning.

10 THE COURT: Good morning.

11 MS. WHEELER: Dorcas Wheeler for Dorcas Wheeler.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Wheeler, let me see. Now, this 13 is a claim of 31,000 or so dollars. You claim that PG&E messed
14 up the pruning on tress -- a tree or trees on your property.

15 MS. WHEELER: That is correct, Your Honor. That is 16 correct.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Silveira?

18 MS. SILVEIRA: Your Honor, this --

19 MS. WHEELER: I -- I don't believe there's any -- I
20 don't believe there's any facts in dispute. And I can't find a
21 single reference in any of the debtors' pleadings. All I see
22 is yesterday when I received the agenda, that they didn't like
23 my argument. But they have not proffered any one single fact
24 to dispute my declaration or my arborous report.

25 THE COURT: Well, they don't -- they don't have to do

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company
1 that under our rules of the status conference. In other
2 words --

3 MS. WHEELER: Okay. This -- this is a status
4 conference then?

5 THE COURT: Well, this is the first status conference,
6 yes. That's what the company said in the papers.

7 MS. WHEELER: I thought it was a continuance of the 8 omnibus hearing from December and --

9 THE COURT: Well, the --

10 MS. WHEELER: -- for the purpose of settling.

11 THE COURT: Well, Ms. Wheeler, everything is 12 settleable. And if there's a fruitful discussion that you have 13 with somebody at the company not involving me, then I would 14 encourage you to do that. But if the company is not inclined 15 to offer you anything and you're not inclined to come down from 16 your demand, that's not going to get settled at this point.
17 But under our --

18 MS. WHEELER: Okay.

19 THE COURT: -- procedures, the difference between the 20 hearing in December and today was just because these things
21 have to play out. This is the first hearing where I've been 22 talking about a schedule of what comes next. And what Ms.
23 Silveira wrote in her filing yesterday was that there were 24 factual disputes. And there are factual disputes that -- and 25 she, Ms. Silveira, does not say your claim can be kicked out as

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 a matter of law. And I don't -- you haven't, at least at this
2 point, attempted to show as a factual matter, as a legal matter
3 that there are no facts in dispute. And you're entitled to it.

4 So think of it this way. Again, I don't know how much
5 experience you have in bankruptcy procedure. But a claim
6 objection, which is what this is, is more like the claimant has
7 filed the equivalent of a complaint and the objector has filed
8 an answer saying I deny the liability. And so then the issue
9 is joined. It's just that the parties are in reverse order.
10 So the debtor -- it's the debtor who initiated the omnibus
11 procedures but did so in response to your proof of claim.

12 So it would seem to me, Ms. Silveira, that this one
13 just needs to be set for trial unless there's a possibility of 14 settling it. What do you think?

15 MS. SILVEIRA: I agree, Your Honor. We're certainly 16 open to discussions in the interim, but we're prepared to set
17 this for trial.

18 THE COURT: Ms. Wheeler, would you be amenable to at 19 least one try at mediating a result here?

20 MS. WHEELER: Yes, I would be amenable to mediation.

21 THE COURT: Ms. Silveira, this would be -- in my 22 opinion this case would be a perfect example of what we call
23 the mini-mediation that was done in place, as you know, in the 24 securities litigation and also in the -- in those other matters
25 that are going to mediation. I would think that this would be

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 fruitful. And I'd like to order that PG&E put Ms. Wheeler
2 and -- Ms. Wheeler and her claim on that -- what we'll call the
3 short-form mediation and put her on -- and take it off calendar
4 until that is either successful or completed unsuccessfully.

5 MS. SILVEIRA: Certainly, Your Honor. We'll begin
6 that process right away.

7 THE COURT: So, Ms. Wheeler, you may not be familiar
8 with it, but there is in place already for some claims. And 9 what's happening that PG&E is picking up the tab for 10 independent mediator. And the parties, with or without 11 counsel, are in -- and I don't -- I'm not privy to what's 12 happening. I just know that it's underway. And that would be 13 perhaps the most sufficient way to do it.

14 So Ms. Silveira has acknowledged it. I will say that 15 she -- the ball will be in her court to bring you up to speed
16 on what should happen. But the first thing that should happen
17 is that some dialog where there will be a date and a time and a
18 mediator lined up to try to see if he or she can help both
19 sides reach an agreement here.

20 MS. WHEELER: I think, Your Honor, that would be the 21 most sufficient use of the Court's time.

22 THE COURT: Well, and your time. Ms. Silveira, I'll 23 take this off calendar and understand that we're putting this 24 into the mediation pipeline. And hopefully I won't hear from 25 Ms. Wheeler again. But if I do, we'll take it up again.

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 MS. SILVEIRA: Certainly. There's just --

2 MS. WHEELER: It would be my pleasure, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Ms. Silveira, were you going to say
4 something else?

5 MS. SILVEIRA: Yeah. There's just one housekeeping
6 point with respect to Ms. Wheeler's claims. She has two
7 asserted claims, 79932 and 80179. We'll get this cleared up
8 through the ADR process. But Ms. Wheeler has acknowledged
9 there is one claim in the amount of 31,020 dollars.

10 THE COURT: Well, Ms. Wheeler, can't we just agree
11 that --

12 MS. WHEELER: Yes.

13 THE COURT: -- you only have one claim? And what --

14 MS. WHEELER: No, that's correct. That is correct.

15 THE COURT: Shouldn't the lower -- Ms. Silveira,
16 shouldn't the lower number just be treated as superseded by the 17 later number?

18 MS. SILVEIRA: Yes, sir. And honestly I do not have 19 the filing dates in front of me, but we are willing to 20 stipulate that 80179 is the surviving claim.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Wheeler, our electronic record, 22 or this audio record, will reflect that you're agreeing that 23 79932 is treated as replaced by 80179. And that's your 24 surviving claim. You already acknowledged it's approximately 25 31,000 -- well, I can see it, 31,020 dollars. And --

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 MS. WHEELER: Yes.

2 THE COURT: -- I will wish you good luck in trying to
3 come up with a mediated resolution of it. So, Ms. Silveira, I
4 will -- the ball is in your court. And I will assume that
5 you'll get -- this will go into the mediation pipeline here
6 promptly.

7 MS. SILVEIRA: Yes. We'll begin the process.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

9 Ms. Wheeler, good luck. Thank you very much for your 10 time.

11 MS. WHEELER: Thank you, Your Honor. I appreciate it.

12 THE COURT: Next we have Bruce and Kathleen Shaw. Is 13 someone on the call for Mr. or Ms. Shaw? Is there an 14 appearance by Bruce or Kathleen Shaw on the forty-third
15 objection? Anyone?

16 Ms. Silveira, have you heard from the Shaws?

17 MS. SILVEIRA: I have not, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Well, what would you like me to do? This 19 need to be defaulted?

20 MS. SILVEIRA: That would be our request. I emailed
21 Mr. and Ms. Shaw yesterday afternoon with instructions on 22 making an appearance, but we haven't heard from them otherwise.

23 THE COURT: All right. I will let the minutes reflect
24 there's no appearance by the claimants, Mr. Bruce and Kathleen
25 Shaw, on claim number 1722 as part of the forty-third omnibus

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company
objection. And the objection will be sustained by default.

Ms. Silveira, you should submit an order. And, obviously, if the Shaws file something that indicate they tried to get in or they had telephonic connections or something, I'll be more amenable to giving them another shot at it. And I suspect you will too. But we'll take that --

MS. SILVEIRA: Of course, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. Next in my calculation would be -- I believe we're down to Ms. Gerstner. Let me just make sure that -- one second. Yeah, is Martha Gerstner on the phone? Ms. Gerstner, are you there?

MS. GERSTNER: Yes, I am. Good afternoon, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon. All right. One second. Let me make sure I know about your situation. All right.

Ms. Gerstner, as I understand your claim, you have some construction work done or PG&E was working on a line, an underground line, that adjoins your home. And the work was not done correctly. And you believe there is something of a claim for about 16,000 dollars for what happened. Do I have it right, roughly?

MS. GERSTNER: Yes, that's correct.

THE COURT: Ms. Silveira, what's the company's position on this one?

MS. SILVEIRA: Your Honor, we were prepared to go

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 forward and argue it to be disallowed as a matter of law.

2 Ms. Gerstner and I emailed last night, and she sent me
3 some additional documentation that we're still assessing and 4 likely will raise some factual issues. So I think in the 5 interim, I would request that we use this as a status
6 conference -- or, excuse me, that we continue this until April
7 28th and treat that as a further status conference.

8 THE COURT: If she hadn't given you more information,
9 was this a Rule 16 issue or something else?

10 MS. SILVEIRA: No, Your Honor. We're contesting that 11 the damage was not caused by PG&E.

12 THE COURT: Oh, causal. All right.

13 Ms. Gerstner, did you hear the discussion I had with 14 some of the other claimants about putting these over so people
15 can -- the company can absorb and work on what you have in 16 mind?

17 MS. GERSTNER: Yes, I did listen to the previous 18 conversations.

19 THE COURT: Well, there have been several, obviously.
20 And sorry to make you wait. I mean, we've gone through all
21 sorts of things like continued hearings to settlements to 22 mediation.

23 MS. GERSTNER: Yep.

24 THE COURT: In this one, what Ms. Silveira was just 25 saying is that she'd like to continue it just so they can

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 consider what you've submitted. So if there's no resolution,
2 it'll just be deferred. But maybe they'll withdraw it. Maybe
3 they'll make you a proposal. Maybe something will happen.

4 And are you satisfied with at least treating it that 5 way today?

6 MS. GERSTNER: Yes, that sounds acceptable.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you very much. I'll do that.
8 You should be ready for a hearing on April 28th at 10 o'clock.
9 Whether it's by phone or Zoom, we'll figure that out later.
10 But I'll talk to you then. Good luck. Thank --

11 MS. GERSTNER: Very --

12 THE COURT: -- you for your time.

13 MS. GERSTNER: Thank you, too, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. One second.

15 All right. The next on my list is Rhonda Miller. Is 16 Ms. Miller on the call? Is Rhonda Miller on our phone call
17 today?

18 Ms. Silveira, have you heard from Ms. Miller?

19 MS. SILVEIRA: I have not, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: As I understand it -- one second. I have 21 too many papers. Ms. Miller's claim is a little confusing to 22 me. And there's not a lot of information that you -- I believe
23 your objection is there's no supporting documentation. And the 24 claim appears to be for 7,375 dollars?

25 MS. SILVEIRA: Yes, Your Honor.

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 THE COURT: All right. One more time.

2 MS. SILVEIRA: That's our understanding.

3 THE COURT: Is Rhonda Miller on the call? All right.

4 I will indicate that Ms. Miller was properly served with the 5 continued hearing today, and she is not appearing. So I'll 6 enter the default and confirm that there's no supporting
7 information in which -- consistent with the fortieth omnibus
8 objection and the claim should be disallowed and the objection
9 sustained. Ms. Silveira will treat this the same way we've 10 treated the other ones that you will serve on Ms. Miller an 11 order disallowing her claim for those reasons.

12 MS. SILVEIRA: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: And next we come to Annette Hicks. Is Ms.
14 Hicks on the phone call today? Annette Hicks, are you on the 15 call?

16 Ms. Silveira, what I see from Ms. Annette Hicks's
17 claim is unsupported list of damages to various appliances
18 without any -- well, I mean, the handwritten documents you
19 filed indicate some power surges, but there's no specifics. Do
20 you have any information or any communication from Ms. Hicks?

21 MS. SILVEIRA: I haven't received any communication
22 from her, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: And am I correct that is the -- that is 24 the fortieth -- you said the fortieth omnibus category. So
25 it's unsupported claim.

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

1 MS. SILVEIRA: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: One more time, is Annette Hicks on the
3 phone call? All right.

4 Ms. Silveira, I will note that and enter her default
5 for nonresponse. She was served with a notice of the hearing.
6 The objections are well-taken and will be sustained and the 7 claim disallowed. And I'll ask you to serve Ms. Hicks with the 8 order that disallows her claim.

9 By my calculation --

10 MS. SILVEIRA: I'll do that, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: -- we have covered all the claimants. Is 12 any claimant on the call who expects and believes you should be 13 heard today that I overlooked?

14 Ms. Silveira, how about you? Have I covered all the 15 bases that you set out there for me?

16 MS. SILVEIRA: Yes, Your Honor. Those were the claims
17 we expected to go forward today.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Well, then, I guess we can conclude
19 the hearing. And any -- do we have any unfinished business? I
20 guess not.

21 All right. Thank you all for your time and 22 participation at the hearing. And thank you to my staff. I
23 will conclude the hearing now.

24 MS. SILVEIRA: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 (Whereupon these proceedings were concluded)
